NOTES TO UNAUDITED CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
February 29, 2024

Note 1 — Basis of Presentation and Significant Accounting Policies

(a) Operations

Ashton Woods USA L.L.C. (the “Company” or “Ashton Woods”) is a limited liability company that, through its subsidiaries, designs, builds, and markets detached and attached single-family homes under the Ashton Woods Homes and Starlight Homes brand names. The Company offers entry-level, move-up, and multi-move-up homes under the Ashton Woods Homes brand name and offers entry-level and wholesale homes under the Starlight Homes brand name. Included under the Starlight Homes brand, the Company offers construction and development services under fee arrangements specifically tailored to the single-family rental industry. In addition, the Company sells completed homes under the Starlight Homes brand, which we typically sell under bulk sales agreements, to real estate investors who purchase the homes for use as rental properties. We refer to such sales as our wholesale home sales. As of February 29, 2024, the Company had operations under the Ashton Woods and/or Starlight Homes brand in or around all of the following markets:

East: Atlanta; Coastal Carolinas (Charleston and Myrtle Beach); Greensboro; Jacksonville; Nashville; Orlando; Raleigh; and Southwest Florida
Central: Austin; Dallas; Houston; Phoenix; and San Antonio

Through two wholly-owned title agency subsidiaries, the Company also performs title services in support of its operations and offers or intends to offer title services to its homebuyers and the public at large in all of its operating divisions except Phoenix.

In addition, the Company offers or intends to offer residential mortgage services to its homebuyers and the public at large in all of its operating divisions through two unconsolidated mortgage joint ventures. The Company has an ownership interest of 49% in each of these mortgage joint ventures.

(b) Basis of presentation

The accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its wholly-owned, majority-owned, and controlled subsidiaries. All intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation. In the Company's opinion, all adjustments (consisting solely of normal recurring accruals) necessary for a fair presentation of the results for the interim periods presented have been included in the accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements.

(c) Cash, cash equivalents, and restricted cash

The Company considers all highly liquid investments with an initial maturity of three months or less when purchased to be cash equivalents. Restricted cash may consist of amounts held in restricted cash accounts as collateral for letters of credit issued and outstanding, as permitted by the Company's Sixth Amended and Restated Credit Agreement (as amended, the "Restated Revolver"), and other investments.

(d) Inventory

In addition to the costs of direct land acquisition, land development and home construction, inventory costs include interest, real estate taxes, and indirect overhead costs incurred during development and home construction. The Company uses the specific identification method for the purpose of accumulating home construction costs. Cost of sales for homes closed includes the specific construction costs of each home (both incurred and estimated to be incurred) and all allocated land acquisition, land development, and related costs based upon the total number of homes expected to be closed in each community. Any changes to the estimated total development costs subsequent to the initial home closings in a community are allocated to the remaining homes in the community.

When a home is closed, the Company generally has not yet recorded all incurred costs necessary to complete the home. Each month, the Company records as a liability and a charge to cost of sales - homes the amount it estimates will ultimately be paid related to completed homes that have been closed as of the end of that month. The Company compares its updated home construction budgets to actual recorded costs to estimate the additional costs remaining to be paid on each closed home. The Company monitors the accuracy of each month's accrual by comparing actual costs paid on closed homes in subsequent months to the amount accrued. Actual costs to be paid on closed homes in the future could differ from the current estimate.

Inventory is stated at cost, unless the carrying amount is determined not to be recoverable, in which case the inventory is written down to fair value in accordance with Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") 360-10, Property, Plant and Equipment ("ASC 360-10"). The Company reviews its inventory in accordance with ASC 360-10, which requires long-lived assets to be assessed for impairment when facts and circumstances indicate an impairment may exist. The Company utilizes an undiscounted future cash flow model in this assessment. When the results of the undiscounted future cash flows are less than the carrying value of the community (asset group), an asset impairment must be recognized in the unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements as a component of cost of sales - homes. The amount of the impairment is calculated by subtracting the estimated fair value of the community from the carrying value. ASC 360-10 also requires that assets held for sale be stated at the lower of cost or fair value, less costs to sell. Accordingly, land held for sale is stated at the lower of accumulated cost or fair value, less costs to sell.

The Company recognized inventory impairment charges of $44.6 thousand and $0.2 million during the three and nine months ended February 29, 2024, respectively. The impairment charges of $44.6 thousand and $0.2 million on homes in inventory during the three and nine months ended February 29, 2024, respectively, are included as a component of cost of sales - homes in the unaudited condensed consolidated statements of income for the three and nine months ended February 29, 2024. The Company recognized inventory impairment charges of $0.2 million and $0.4 million during the three- and nine-month periods ended February 28, 2023, respectively. The impairment charge of $0.2 million during the three months ended February 28, 2023 is included as a component of cost of sales - homes in the unaudited condensed consolidated statements of income for the three months ended February 28, 2023. The impairment charges of $0.4 million during the nine months ended February 28, 2023 consisted of $0.2 million of impairments on homes in inventory, which is included as a component of cost of sales - homes in the unaudited condensed consolidated statements of income for the nine months ended February 28, 2023, and $0.2 million of impairments on land that was held for sale, which is included as a component of cost of sales - land in the unaudited condensed consolidated statements of income for the nine months ended February 28, 2023.

In order for management to assess the fair value of its real estate assets, certain assumptions must be made that are highly subjective and susceptible to change. Management evaluates, among other things, the actual gross margins for homes closed and the estimated gross margins for homes sold in backlog (representing the number or value of sales that have not yet closed). This evaluation also includes assumptions with respect to future home sales prices, levels of sales incentives, construction and development costs, the monthly rate of sales, discount rates, and profit margins, which are critical in determining the fair value of the Company's real estate inventory assets. Given the historical variability in the homebuilding industry cycle, the Company is of the view that the valuation of homebuilding inventories is sensitive to changes in economic conditions, such as interest rates, inflation, the availability of credit, and unemployment levels. Changes in these economic conditions could materially affect the projected home sales prices, the level of sales incentives, the costs to develop land and construct homes, and the monthly rate of sales and cancellations. Because of these potential changes in economic and market conditions, in conjunction with the assumptions and estimates required of management in valuing homebuilding inventory, actual results could differ materially from management's assumptions and may require material inventory impairments to be recorded in the future.

(1) Includes certain land development costs to be reimbursed by seven and eleven Municipal Utility Districts ("MUD") in Houston, Texas at February 29, 2024 and May 31, 2023, respectively.

(2) Includes amounts due from utility companies, rebates due from trade partners, drawn amounts due from salespersons, and a loan to one of the Company's executive officers relating to the officer's income tax obligations arising from a Class D equity award (see Note 11 for additional discussion of this loan receivable).

(f) Real estate not owned

Real estate not owned reflects lots under option purchase agreements recorded pursuant to ASC 606, Revenue From Contracts With Customers ("ASC 606"), ASC Subtopic 470-40, Product Financing Arrangements ("ASC 470-40"), or ASC 810, Consolidation ("ASC 810") (see Note 4 for additional information about real estate not owned).

(g) Investments in unconsolidated entities

The Company participates in one land development joint venture in which it has less than a controlling interest. The Company accounts for its interest in this entity under the equity method. The Company's share of profits from lots it purchases from this joint venture is deferred and treated as a reduction of the cost basis of land purchased from the entity.

The Company offers or intends to offer residential mortgage services to its homebuyers and the public at large in all of its operating divisions through two unconsolidated mortgage joint ventures. The Company has an ownership interest of 49% in each of these mortgage joint ventures. The Company's investments in these mortgage joint ventures are accounted for under the equity method.

Investments in unconsolidated entities are evaluated for other-than-temporary impairment during each reporting period pursuant to ASC Subtopic 323-10, Investments—Equity Method and Joint Ventures. A series of operating losses or other factors may indicate an other-than-temporary decrease in the value of the Company's investment in an unconsolidated entity. The amount of impairment recognized is the excess of the investment's carrying value over its estimated fair value. The Company did not have any other-than-temporary impairments during the three or nine months ended February 29, 2024 or February 28, 2023 related to its investments in unconsolidated entities.

(h) Deposits and pre-acquisition costs

Deposits and pre-acquisition costs related to purchase agreements are capitalized when paid and classified in the unaudited condensed consolidated balance sheets as deposits on real estate under option or contract (for deposits) and other assets (for pre-acquisition costs) until the related land is acquired. These costs are transferred to inventory at the time the land or lots are acquired. Alternatively, in the case of off-balance sheet financing arrangements, pre-acquisition costs are transferred to inventory simultaneous to executing the option agreement to acquire land or lots. Nonrefundable deposits and pre-acquisition costs are charged to expense when the real estate purchase is no longer considered probable. If the Company intends to terminate a purchase agreement, it records a charge to earnings for the costs associated with the purchase agreement in the period such a decision is made. This expense is included as a component of cost of sales – homes in the unaudited condensed consolidated statements of income and totaled $0.3 million and $1.5 million for the three and nine months ended February 29, 2024, respectively, and $0.4 million and $10.8 million for the three and nine months ended February 28, 2023, respectively.

(i) Property and equipment, net

Property and equipment is recorded at cost. Depreciation and amortization are generally recorded using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets, which range from two to five years. Depreciable lives for leasehold improvements reflect the lesser of the economic life of the asset or the term of the lease. Repairs and maintenance costs are expensed as incurred. The Company's property and equipment at February 29, 2024 and May 31, 2023 consisted of the following (in thousands):

	February 29, 2024	May 31, 2023
Office furniture and equipment	$ 2,825	$ 2,765
Sales offices, design studios, and model furnishings	27,639	21,647
Leasehold improvements	4,639	4,545
	35,103	28,957
Accumulated depreciation and amortization <sup>(1)</sup>	(20,060)	(16,685)
	$ 15,043	$ 12,272

(1) Net of retirements and disposals.

Depreciation and amortization expense totaled $2.6 million and $7.0 million for the three and nine months ended February 29, 2024, respectively, and $1.6 million and $4.7 million for the three and nine months ended February 28, 2023, respectively.

(j) Revenue recognition

With respect to home sales revenues, revenue from a home sale is recognized when we have satisfied the performance obligation in the home sales contract, which is generally at the time of the closing of each sale, when title to and possession of the property are transferred to the buyer. The revenue recognized for each home sale includes the base sales price of the home, as well as any purchased options and upgrades, and is reduced for any sales price and financing incentives. Our performance obligation to deliver the agreed-upon home is generally satisfied in less than one year from the original contract date. Home sale contract assets consist of cash from home closings in transit or held in escrow for our benefit, which is typically received within two days of the home closing. Home sale contract assets totaled $1.1 million and $1.5 million at February 29, 2024 and May 31, 2023, respectively, and are classified as receivables, net in the unaudited condensed consolidated balance sheets. Home sale contract liabilities include customer deposit liabilities related to sold but undelivered homes and wholesale home sales customer deposit liabilities to secure the purchase of homes or land in future communities or future phases of existing communities, which totaled $39.4 million and $43.8 million at February 29, 2024 and May 31, 2023, respectively. Of the customer deposit liabilities at May 31, 2023, $36.6 million was recognized in home sales revenues during the nine months ended February 29, 2024 upon the closing of the related homes. Also included in home sales revenues are our wholesale home sales within our Starlight Homes brand. Wholesale home sales primarily consist of completed homes sold under bulk sales agreements to real estate investors who purchase the homes for use as rental properties.

See Note 1(l) for additional discussion of warranties and obligations associated with home sales revenues.

With respect to land sales revenues, we periodically elect to sell parcels of land or lots. These land and lot sales are generally outright sales of specified land parcels with cash consideration due on the closing date, which is generally when performance obligations are satisfied. Land sale contract assets consist of cash from closed land sales in transit or held in escrow for our benefit, which is typically received within two days of closing on the land sale. Land sale contract assets are classified as receivables, net in the unaudited condensed consolidated balance sheets. Land sale contract liabilities consist of customer deposit liabilities related to land parcels under contract for sale. There were no land sale contract assets or liabilities at February 29, 2024 or May 31, 2023.

With respect to financial services and other revenues, financial services revenues, which are not within the scope of ASC 606, primarily consist of title premium income earned from the provision of title services for homebuyers. Other revenues consist of revenue from forfeited customer deposits that is recognized upon cancellation of the home sales contract when the Company is contractually entitled to retain the deposit and other miscellaneous customer revenue that is recognized when the related performance obligation is satisfied. Other revenues also include revenues from fee development, development oversight, and/or construction services pursuant to agreements entered into by the Company with third-party property owners specifically tailored to the single-family rental industry. For these types of contracts, the Company recognizes revenue based on the actual total costs it has incurred plus the applicable fee. In accordance with ASC 606, the Company applies the percentage-of-completion method, using the cost-to-cost approach, as it most accurately measures the progress of our efforts in satisfying our obligations within the fee building agreements. Under this approach, revenue is earned in proportion to total costs incurred divided by total costs expected to be incurred. In the course of providing fee development, development oversight, and/or construction services, the Company routinely subcontracts for services and incurs other direct costs. These costs are typically passed through to the property owners and, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States (“GAAP”), are included in the Company’s financial services and other revenues and cost of sales - financial services and other revenues in the unaudited condensed consolidated statements of income.

ASC 606 provides certain practical expedients that limit some accounting treatments and disclosure requirements. Accordingly, we do not disclose the value of unsatisfied performance obligations for contracts with an original expected length of one year or less. As of February 29, 2024, the expected revenue to be recognized relating to unsatisfied performance obligations for contracts with an original expected length greater than one year is $125.6 million, all of which is related to fee development, development oversight, and/or construction services pursuant to agreements entered into by the Company with either an affiliate of certain of the beneficial owners of the Company's equity or their affiliates (individually and collectively, the “Investors”) or third-party property owners. We expect to recognize the revenue relating to unsatisfied performance obligations for contracts with an original expected length greater than one year by the end of fiscal year 2026.

(k) Prepaid expenses

Included in other assets are prepaid expenses of $22.4 million and $13.5 million as of February 29, 2024 and May 31, 2023, respectively, which is predominantly comprised of prepaid insurance, fees, permits, and software licenses.

The Company provides its homebuyers with limited warranties that generally provide for specified coverages, including, for example, structural coverage, coverage for plumbing, electrical and heating, ventilation and air conditioning systems, and coverage for workmanship and materials. Warranty liabilities are initially established on a per home basis by charging cost of sales - homes and establishing a warranty liability for each home delivered to cover expected costs of materials and labor during the warranty period. The amounts accrued are based on management's estimate of expected warranty-related costs under all unexpired warranty coverage periods. The Company's warranty liability is based upon historical warranty cost experience in each operating division and is adjusted as appropriate to reflect qualitative risks associated with the types of homes built and the geographic areas in which they are built. The Company's warranty liability is included in other liabilities in the unaudited condensed consolidated balance sheets.

Presented below are summaries of the activity in the Company’s warranty liability account for the three and nine months ended February 29, 2024 and February 28, 2023 (in thousands):

	Three months ended		Nine months ended
	February 29, 2024	February 28, 2023	February 29, 2024	February 28, 2023
Warranty liability, beginning of period	$ 18,683	$ 13,904	$ 17,242	$ 15,000
Costs accrued during period	5,449	5,855	17,054	15,710
Costs incurred during period	(5,229)	(4,775)	(15,393)	(15,726)
Warranty liability, end of period	$ 18,903	$ 14,984	$ 18,903	$ 14,984

(m) Advertising costs

The Company expenses advertising costs as they are incurred. Advertising expense, which is included in selling, general and administrative expense in the unaudited condensed consolidated statements of income, was approximately $3.1 million and $7.5 million for the three and nine months ended February 29, 2024, respectively, and $1.9 million and $4.0 million for the three and nine months ended February 28, 2023, respectively.

(n) Long-term incentive plan

The Company offers a long-term incentive compensation program designed to align the interests of the Company and its executives by enabling key employees to participate in the Company's future growth through the issuance of performance shares, which are the equivalent of phantom equity awards. The Company's performance shares are accounted for pursuant to ASC Subtopic 710-10-25-9 to 25-11, Deferred Compensation Arrangements, as the value is not based on the shares of a comparable set of public builders or other equity instruments, but is based on the book value of equity of the Company. The Company measures the value of the performance shares on a quarterly basis using the intrinsic value method. Additional compensation expense may be recognized subsequent to completion of the vesting period for appreciation-only performance shares. See Note 12 for additional discussion regarding the Company's long-term incentive plan.

(o) Income taxes

The Company operates as a limited liability company and is treated as a partnership for income tax purposes. Accordingly, the Company incurs no liability for federal and most state income taxes, since the taxable income or loss is passed through to its Members, but incurs liabilities for certain state taxes payable directly by the Company. The Company calculates its Members' potential tax liability related to their share of the Company's taxable income and may make distributions to such Members to allow them to satisfy their tax liability, subject to limitations contained in the Company's Restated Revolver and in the indentures governing its 6.625% Senior Notes due 2028 (the "2028 Notes"), its 4.625% Senior Notes due 2029 (the "2029 Notes"), and its 4.625% Senior Notes due 2030 (the "2030 Notes"). Any tax distributions made to the Members are treated as a reduction of equity. The Company made tax distributions to its Members of $93.6 million and $119.8 million during the nine months ended February 29, 2024 and February 28, 2023, respectively.

(p) Use of estimates

The preparation of unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

(q) Segments

ASC 280, Segment Reporting ("ASC 280"), provides accounting guidance for the way in which companies report information about operating segments. In accordance with ASC 280, the Company believes that each of its homebuilding operating markets, as summarized below, is an operating segment. In accordance with the aggregation criteria defined in ASC 280, the Company has grouped its homebuilding operations into two reportable segments as follows:

- 1) East: Atlanta; Coastal Carolinas (Charleston and Myrtle Beach); Greensboro; Jacksonville; Nashville; Orlando; Raleigh; and Southwest Florida
- 2) Central: Austin; Dallas; Houston; Phoenix; and San Antonio

The Company has determined that the homebuilding operating markets within its respective reportable segments have similar economic characteristics and product types, and are similar in terms of geography. The Company's homebuilding operating markets also share all other relevant aggregation characteristics prescribed in ASC 280, such as similar product types, production processes and methods of distribution.

See Note 15 for further discussion of the Company's reportable segments.

(r) Risks and uncertainties

Beginning in 2022 and continuing through most of 2023, the U.S. economy experienced significant inflationary pressure with prices of gas, food, and other household goods rising at the fastest rate in over 40 years. To combat the high levels of inflation, the Federal Reserve raised the federal funds rate a cumulative of 525 basis points from March 2022 to November 2023 which led to a significant increase in residential mortgage interest rates. In December 2023, the Federal Reserve indicated further federal funds rate increases are not likely, and further indicated that reductions could occur during 2024. High residential mortgage interest rates, coupled with elevated inflation in the broader economy and the rising cost of housing, has resulted in pressure on the affordability of single-family homes. Further, while the labor shortages and supply chain disruptions that began during the COVID-19 pandemic have improved, they continue to impact our business operations. The combination of these factors, as well as delays in municipal approvals and permitting, has led to increased costs and elongated production cycles. The current environment makes it challenging to predict the impact that inflationary pressures, high interest rates, governmental delays, war and other hostilities, supply chain disruptions and labor shortages may have on the future performance of our business. As a result, there remains significant uncertainty regarding how recent macroeconomic shifts, the continuing supply chain disruptions and labor shortages, war and other hostilities, and the threats thereof and consequences therefrom, will impact the U.S. and global economies going forward, including the level of unemployment, availability of financing and capital, the health of the residential mortgage markets, consumer confidence, and demand for our homes, and in turn, the impact it will have on our results.

Certain prior year amounts have been reclassified for consistency with the current year presentation; specifically on the consolidated balance sheets as of May 31, 2023, real estate not owned of $243.9 million has been reclassified from other assets to its own line item, and liabilities related to real estate not owned of $169.1 million has been reclassified from other liabilities to its own line item. Further, the presentation of cash inflows and outflows associated with real estate not owned transactions accounted for under ASC 606 or ASC 470-40, which were previously presented within the operating activities section of the unaudited condensed consolidated statements of cash flows have been reclassified within the financing activities section of the unaudited condensed consolidated statements of cash flows to align with industry practice. These reclassifications had no effect on the reported total assets, total liabilities, total Members' equity, results of operations, nor the change in cash, cash equivalents, and restricted cash for the nine months ended February 29, 2024 and February 28, 2023.

(t) Subsequent events

The Company has evaluated subsequent events through March 26, 2024. This date represents the date on which the unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements were available to be issued.

On March 26, 2024, the Company's Board of Directors (the "Board") approved a tax distribution totaling $34.2 million in the aggregate to the Company's Members.

Subsequent to February 29, 2024, the Board approved non-tax distributions totaling $28.8 million to the Company's Members.

Note 2 — Pending and Recently Adopted Accounting Pronouncements

In November 2023, the FASB issued ASU No. 2023-07, Segment Reporting (Topic 280): Improvements to Reportable Segment Disclosures ("ASU 2023-07"). ASU 2023-07 requires disclosure of significant segment expenses that are regularly provided to the chief operating decision maker ("CODM") and included within each reported measure of segment profit or loss, an amount and description of its composition for other segment items to reconcile to segment profit or loss, and the title and position of the entity's CODM. The amendments in this update also expand the interim segment disclosure requirements. ASU 2023-07 will be effective for our fiscal year ending May 31, 2025 and for interim periods starting in the first quarter of our fiscal year ending May 31, 2026. Early adoption is permitted and the amendments in this update are required to be applied on a retrospective basis. The Company is currently reviewing the impact that the adoption of ASU 2023-07 may have on its condensed consolidated financial statements and disclosures.

On June 1, 2023, we adopted FASB ASU No. 2016-13, Financial Instruments - Credit Losses (Topic 326): Measurement of Credit Losses on Financial Instruments ("ASU 2016-13"), which changes the impairment model for most financial assets and certain other instruments from an "incurred loss" approach to a new "expected credit loss" methodology. The standard requires an entity to recognize the effects of adopting the new standard as a cumulative effect adjustment to opening retained earnings in the period of adoption. The adoption of ASU 2016-13 did not have a material effect on our condensed consolidated financial statements or disclosures.

Note 3— Inventory

The Company capitalizes all interest incurred to the extent its qualifying assets meet or exceed its debt obligations. If qualifying assets are less than the Company's debt obligations, there are limits on the amount of interest that can be capitalized, and the remainder of interest incurred must be directly expensed. The Company directly expensed interest of $1.6 million and $3.7 million for the three and nine months ended February 29, 2024, respectively, and $0.3 million and $0.5 million for the three and nine months ended February 28, 2023, respectively, in the unaudited condensed consolidated statements of income.

Note 4 — Real Estate Not Owned

In the ordinary course of business, the Company enters into lot purchase agreements in order to procure lots for the construction of homes in the future. Pursuant to these lot purchase agreements, the Company generally will provide a deposit to the seller as consideration for the right, but not the obligation, to purchase lots at different times in the future, usually at predetermined prices. Depending on the circumstances of such lot purchase agreements, "Real estate not owned" may be recorded based on the application of prescribed accounting provisions in accordance with ASC 810 or ASC 470-40. In applying these provisions, the Company regularly evaluates its land and lot purchase agreements.

Pursuant to ASC 810, when the Company enters into a purchase agreement to acquire land or lots from an entity and pays a non-refundable deposit, the Company has concluded that a variable interest entity ("VIE"), for which consolidation may be required, is created because the Company is deemed to have provided subordinated financial support that will absorb some or all of an entity's expected losses if they occur. For each VIE, the Company assesses whether it is the primary beneficiary of the VIE and thus must consolidate the entity by first determining if it has the ability to control the activities of the VIE that most significantly impact its economic performance. Such activities include, but are not limited to, the ability to determine the budget and scope of land development work, if any; the ability to control financing decisions for the VIE; the ability to acquire additional land into the VIE or dispose of land in the VIE not under contract; and the ability to change or amend the existing purchase contract with the VIE. If the Company is determined not to control such activities, it is not considered the primary beneficiary of the VIE. If it does have the ability to control such activities, it will continue the analysis by determining if it is expected to absorb a potentially significant amount of the VIE's losses or, if no party absorbs the majority of such losses, if it will potentially benefit from a significant amount of the VIE's expected gain. If the Company determines that it is the primary beneficiary of the VIE, it will consolidate the VIE in its financial statements and reflect such assets as “Real estate not owned” and the related liabilities as “Liabilities related to real estate not owned”. At February 29, 2024 and May 31, 2023, no purchase contracts or investments in unconsolidated entities were determined to require consolidation under ASC 810.

Pursuant to ASC 470-40, if a buying entity participates in an arrangement in which it is economically compelled to purchase land, then the entity is required to consolidate such arrangement. In an effort to balance the amount of land and lots owned relative to the amount of land and lots controlled, the Company enters into arrangements in which it identifies lots that it desires to purchase, finds an investor to purchase the lots and then enters into option purchase agreements with the investor to acquire the lots in staged takedowns. In consideration for such options, the Company generally makes nonrefundable deposits. While the Company is generally not obligated to purchase the lots that are the subject of such agreements, it would forfeit the remaining deposits if the lots are not purchased. Although the Company is not obligated to purchase the lots under option unless it enters into a contract with specific performance obligations, if, at the reporting date, the Company believes that due to the terms of the purchase contracts it is compelled to purchase the lots under option, the Company will record “Real estate not owned” and the related liabilities as “Liabilities related to real estate not owned” in connection with such option purchase agreements. At February 29, 2024 and May 31, 2023, the Company had one lot purchase agreement with the Investors that is accounted for pursuant to ASC 470-40. At February 29, 2024 and May 31, 2023, the Company recorded real estate not owned of $26.0 million related to this lot purchase agreement accounted for pursuant to ASC 470-40 and liabilities related to real estate not owned of $18.2 million, which is net of a cash deposit to the seller of $7.8 million.

Based on the provisions of ASC Subtopic 606-10, a seller may not recognize as a sale property it has sold if the seller has an obligation or a right to repurchase lots and if the repurchase agreement is considered to be a financing arrangement. ASC 606 considers a repurchase option contract to be a financing arrangement, in accordance with ASC Subtopic 606-10-55-70, if the seller will repurchase the lots for an amount that is equal to or greater than the original selling price of the asset. Therefore, if the Company enters into lot purchase option agreements for land it has concurrently sold and determines that the repurchase agreement is considered to be a financing arrangement, the Company records the lots subject to such sale as “Real estate not owned” and the related liabilities under the lot purchase option agreement as “Liabilities related to real estate not owned”. At February 29, 2024 and May 31, 2023, the Company recorded real estate not owned of $377.7 million and $217.9 million, respectively, and $237.9 million and $150.9 million of liabilities related to real estate not owned, respectively, which is net of cash deposits of $139.8 million and $67.0 million, respectively, for the sale of lots because its repurchase agreements related to the real estate were considered to be financing arrangements. While these option agreements contain no specific performance obligations, should the Company choose not to purchase the land, it will forfeit the deposited amount.

Note 5 — Other Assets

Other assets at February 29, 2024 and May 31, 2023 consisted of the following (in thousands):

	February 29, 2024	May 31, 2023
Right-of-use assets <sup>(1)</sup>	$ 12,809	$ 13,675
Prepaid expenses	22,436	13,512
Lot option and development contracts intangible	2,204	3,012

Pre-acquisition costs	6,100	5,021
Other	2,625	1,874
	$ 52,865	$ 44,233

(1) See Note 14, Leases, for additional information

The lot option and development contracts intangible is comprised of the fair value adjustment recorded in accordance with the purchase price accounting for the Company's acquisition of substantially all of the assets of Capitol City Homes, LLC ("Capitol City Homes") during the fiscal year ended May 31, 2022. The fair value adjustment recorded as of the acquisition date represented the difference between the contractual purchase price of lots under option and the estimated fair value of such lots as of the acquisition date. Significant assumptions included in the Company's estimate of the fair value of the lots under such lot option and development contracts included market comparisons, gross margin comparisons, future development costs, and the timing of the completion of development activities. The lot option and development contracts intangible fair value is amortized to inventory as lots are purchased in accordance with the acquired contracts. During the three and nine months ended February 29, 2024, $48.0 thousand and $0.5 million, respectively, of the lot option and development contracts intangible fair value was allocated to inventory upon the purchase of lots in accordance with the terms of the acquired contracts. The Company allocated $0.5 million and $1.5 million of the lot option and development contracts intangible fair value to inventory upon the purchase of lots in accordance with the terms of the acquired contracts during the three and nine months ended February 28, 2023, respectively. In addition, the Company wrote-off $0.3 million and $3.3 million of the lot option and development contracts intangible during the nine months ended February 29, 2024 and February 28, 2023, respectively, upon the termination of lot option contracts acquired in the Capitol City Homes acquisition. The corresponding charges against earnings are included as a component of cost of sales – homes in the unaudited condensed consolidated statements of income for the nine months ended February 29, 2024 and February 28, 2023.

Architecture plans are comprised of the costs incurred related to architecture plans, associated engineering costs, and interactive floor plans for house plans, and are amortized through cost of sales - homes on a per home basis.

Deferred financing costs included in other assets are comprised of costs incurred in connection with obtaining financing under the Restated Revolver. The Company did not incur any deferred financing fees during the nine months ended February 29, 2024 and February 28, 2023, respectively, related to the Company's Restated Revolver.

See Note 1(h) for additional information on pre-acquisition costs.

Note 6 — Investments in Unconsolidated Entities

The Company enters into land joint ventures from time to time as a means of accessing larger parcels of land and lot positions, managing its risk profile and leveraging its capital base. As of February 29, 2024, the Company had an equity investment in one land joint venture with the Investors. The Company has a 49% limited partner non-controlling interest in this joint venture and has accounted for it under the equity method. The partners generally share profits and losses in accordance with their ownership interests. As of February 29, 2024 and May 31, 2023, the Company had recorded $1.2 million and $0.3 million, respectively, for its investment in this unconsolidated entity in the unaudited condensed consolidated balance sheets. The Company has entered into a services agreement with the joint venture to provide accounting and administrative services to the joint venture. The Company receives a monthly fee of $6,000 for these services that is included in other income, net in the unaudited condensed consolidated statements of income. As of February 29, 2024, the joint venture had no debt outstanding.

The Company offers or intends to offer residential mortgage services to its homebuyers and the public at large in all of its operating divisions through two unconsolidated mortgage joint ventures. ### Note 12— Long-Term Incentive Plan

The Company has made, and may continue to make, grants to its executive officers and certain officers and employees under the Third Amended and Restated Performance Share Plan, as amended, (the “Plan”), which is a long-term incentive compensation program designed to align the interests of the Company and its executives by enabling key employees to participate in the Company's future growth. The Plan provides for the grant to participants of full-value performance shares and appreciation-only performance shares, each of which are the equivalent of phantom equity awards. Full-value performance shares allow the participant to receive a cash payment equal to the total value of the performance share on the designated date of payment. Appreciation-only performance shares allow the participant to receive a cash payment equal to the increase in value of the performance share measured from the date of grant to the designated date of payment.

The value of a performance share under the Plan is determined by dividing the Company's book value, as defined under the Plan, by the number of hypothetical shares as defined by the Plan. Generally, except as otherwise determined by the Board upon grant, performance shares awarded under the Plan will vest ratably over three years and will be subject to forfeiture upon the occurrence of certain events, including termination of employment for cause. The Plan provides that performance shares will become fully vested upon a participant's resignation for good reason, the participant's death or disability or a change of control, and with respect to certain grants, upon a termination without cause and an equity sale, as defined in the Plan. In the absence of a payment event otherwise defined in the Plan, the full-value performance share awards pay out after the third anniversary of the award date, and the appreciation-only performance share awards pay out after the fifth anniversary of the award date.

The following table represents a rollforward of the outstanding performance shares for the nine months ended February 29, 2024:

	Full-value shares	Appreciation- only shares	Total shares
Outstanding performance shares as of May 31, 2023	529,908	1,318,416	1,848,324
Performance shares awarded during the period	73,430	146,860	220,290
Shares forfeited during the period	(3,778)	(7,555)	(11,333)
Fully vested performance shares paid	(100,384)	(145,115)	(245,499)
Total outstanding performance shares as of February 29, 2024	499,176	1,312,606	1,811,782
Total vested performance shares as of February 29, 2024	271,102	871,824	1,142,926

The Company's liability for performance shares awarded under the Plan is remeasured quarterly to reflect the intrinsic value of the performance shares that have vested as of the balance sheet date. As a result, the Company may record an increase or decrease in compensation expense in any period. Compensation expense for the full-value and appreciation-only performance shares is included in selling, general and administrative expense in the unaudited condensed consolidated statements of income.

The total number of performance shares vested as of February 29, 2024 and May 31, 2023 were 1,142,926 and 1,246,189, respectively. The Company recorded $22.2 million and $59.3 million for the three and nine months ended February 29, 2024, respectively, and $14.7 million and $42.6 million for the three and nine months ended February 28, 2023, respectively, in compensation expense associated with the full-value and appreciation-only performance shares. For the nine months ended February 29, 2024 and February 28, 2023, $25.7 million (245,499 units) and $28.5 million (393,210 units), respectively, of vested performance shares were paid out to employees. As of February 29, 2024, and May 31, 2023, the Company's liability for the performance shares was $140.5 million and $106.9 million, respectively, which is recorded in other liabilities in the unaudited condensed consolidated balance sheets.

Note 13 — Fair Value Disclosures

ASC 820, Fair Value Measurement, defines fair value, establishes a framework for measuring fair value and expands disclosures about fair value measurements. This standard establishes a three-level hierarchy for fair value measurements based upon the significant inputs used to determine fair value. Observable inputs are those that are obtained from market participants external to the Company while unobservable inputs are generally developed internally, utilizing management's estimates, assumptions and specific knowledge of the assets/liabilities and related markets. The three levels are defined as follows:

- Level 1: Valuation is based on quoted prices in active markets for identical assets and liabilities.
- Level 2: Valuation is determined from quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets, quoted prices for identical or similar instruments in markets that are not active, or by model-based techniques in which all significant inputs are observable in the market.
- Level 3: Valuation is derived from model-based techniques in which at least one significant input is unobservable and based on the Company's own estimates about the assumptions that market participants would use to value the asset or liability.

The carrying amounts of cash and cash equivalents, restricted cash, receivables, accounts payable, customer deposits, and the Restated Revolver, as reported in the accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated balance sheets, approximate their fair values due to their short-term maturity or floating interest rate terms, as applicable. The factors considered in determining fair values of the Company's communities, when necessary, under ASC 360-10 are described in the discussion of the Company's inventory impairment analysis (see Note 1(d) for additional information about inventory valuations) and are classified as Level 2 or Level 3 valuations.

The following table presents the carrying amounts and estimated fair values of the Companies' 2028 Notes, 2029 Notes, and 2030 Notes (collectively, the "Senior Notes") and note payable at February 29, 2024, and May 31, 2023 (in thousands):

The Companies' Senior Notes and note payable are recorded at their carrying values in the unaudited condensed consolidated balance sheets, which differs from their respective fair values. The carrying values of the Companies' Senior Notes reflect their face amount, adjusted for unamortized debt issuance costs and any discount. The fair values of the Senior Notes are derived from quoted market prices by independent dealers (Level 2). The fair value of the Company's note payable is based on cash flow models discounted at market interest rates (Level 2).

Note 14— Commitments and Contingencies

The Company is involved in lawsuits and other contingencies in the ordinary course of business. The amounts demanded by the claimants in these lawsuits and claims may vary widely, with large demands made in certain cases, which are disputed and aggressively defended by the Company. The Company establishes liabilities for legal claims and related matters when such matters are both probable of occurring and any potential loss is reasonably estimable. The Company accrues for such matters based on the facts and circumstances specific to each matter and revises these estimates as the matters evolve. In such cases, there may exist an exposure to loss in excess of any amounts currently accrued. In view of the inherent difficulty of predicting the outcome of these legal and related matters, we generally cannot predict the ultimate resolution of the pending matters, the related timing, or the eventual loss. While the outcome of such contingencies cannot be predicted with certainty, we do not believe that the resolution of such matters will have a material adverse effect on the Company's results of operations, financial condition, or cash flows. However, to the extent the liability arising from the ultimate resolution of any matter exceeds the estimates reflected in the recorded reserves relating to such matter, we could incur additional charges that could be significant.

The Company has entered into employment agreements with its executive officers and certain other employees that provide for severance payments based on salary and bonus upon termination without cause, or, with respect to certain of these officers, following a change of control, by the Company without cause or by the executive for good reason.

In the normal course of business, the Company provides letters of credit and surety bonds to third parties to secure performance and provide deposits under various contracts and commitments. At February 29, 2024 and May 31, 2023, the Company had letters of credit outstanding of $21.0 million and $8.4 million, respectively, and surety bonds outstanding of $223.3 million and $210.7 million, respectively. As of February 29, 2024, the Company had $29.0 million of unused letter of credit capacity under the Restated Revolver.

The Company enters into various option purchase agreements to acquire land. In connection with such agreements, the Company has made nonrefundable deposits of $480.7 million as of February 29, 2024, which includes $147.6 million of nonrefundable deposits related to purchase and option agreements recorded under ASC 606 or ASC 470-40 (see Note 4). The Company would forfeit the remaining deposits if the lots are not purchased. The total purchase price of lots remaining to be purchased under option agreements with nonrefundable deposits was approximately $2.9 billion as of February 29, 2024.

Leases

The Company leases office space and equipment under various operating leases with varying commencement dates and renewal options for use in our operations. We recognize lease expense for these leases on a straight-line basis over the lease term and combine lease and non-lease components for all leases. Right-of-use assets and lease liabilities are recorded on the unaudited condensed consolidated balance sheets for all leases with an expected term of at least one year. Some leases include one or more options to renew. The exercise of lease renewal options is generally at our discretion. The depreciable lives of right-of-use assets and leasehold improvements are limited to the expected lease term. Our lease agreements do not contain any residual value guarantees or material restrictive covenants.

Right-of-use assets are classified within other assets on the unaudited condensed consolidated balance sheets, while lease liabilities are classified within other liabilities on the unaudited condensed consolidated balance sheets. Right-of-use assets and lease liabilities were $12.8 million and $13.8 million at February 29, 2024, respectively, and $13.7 million and $14.8 million at May 31, 2023, respectively. During the nine months ended February 29, 2024 and February 28, 2023, there were approximately $1.9 million and $1.6 million, respectively, of additions to the right-of-use assets under operating leases. Payments on lease liabilities during the nine months ended February 29, 2024 and February 28, 2023 totaled $3.6 million and $3.8 million, respectively.

Lease expense includes costs for leases with terms in excess of one year as well as short-term leases with terms of less than one year. For the nine months ended February 29, 2024 and February 28, 2023, our total lease expense was approximately $3.6 million and $4.2 million, respectively, inclusive of short-term lease costs. Sublease income, short-term lease costs, and variable lease costs are not material to the unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements.

The future minimum lease payments required under our leases as of February 29, 2024, are as follows (in thousands):

Year ending May 31, 2024	$ 1,191
Year ending May 31, 2025	4,218
Year ending May 31, 2026	3,969
Year ending May 31, 2027	2,776
Year ending May 31, 2028	2,198
Thereafter	1,139
Total future minimum lease payments <sup>(a)</sup>	15,491
Total future minimum lease payments less interest <sup>(c)</sup>	$ 13,771

(a) Lease payments include options to extend lease terms that are reasonably certain of being exercised.

(b) Our leases do not provide a readily determinable implicit rate. Therefore, we estimate our discount rate for such leases to determine the present value of lease payments at the lease commencement date.

(c) The weighted average lease term and weighted average discount rate used in calculating our lease liabilities were 3.9 years and 6.33%, respectively, at February 29, 2024.

Overview and Outlook

Beginning in calendar year 2022 and continuing through most of 2023, the U.S. economy experienced significant inflationary pressure with prices of gas, food, and other household goods rising at the fastest rate in over 40 years. To combat the high levels of inflation, the Federal Reserve raised the federal funds rate a cumulative of 525 basis points from March 2022 to November 2023 which led to a significant increase in residential mortgage interest rates. In December 2023, the Federal Reserve indicated further federal funds rate increases are not likely, and further indicated that reductions could occur during 2024. High residential mortgage interest rates, coupled with elevated inflation in the broader economy and the rising cost of housing, has resulted in pressure on the affordability of single-family homes. In response to the continued economic uncertainty and affordability challenges faced by consumers, we have actively adjusted pricing and continued to offer sales and financing incentives across all of our markets which has allowed us to remain competitive in our current communities and price our homes to the market in our newly opened communities. As consumer demand for new homes has returned in certain markets, we have been able to raise prices and reduce incentives in select communities within those markets.

Despite affordability concerns and uncertain macroeconomic conditions, there continues to be qualified and motivated homebuyers due to the historical under-supply of new home construction, the limited supply of homes at affordable price points across our markets, the demographic shift towards homeownership, and a strong employment market, which has resulted in wage growth across most sectors, adding to the demand for finished new homes. Given these factors, and the possibility of near-term reductions by the Federal Reserve in the federal funds rate, we believe that demand continues to exist for single-family homes, and as a result, we are continuing to start construction on additional homes, make new land investments, and develop land we own or control, while continuing to focus on maintaining adequate liquidity through the still uncertain times ahead.

Business

We design, build, and market detached and attached single-family homes in seven states under the Ashton Woods Homes and Starlight Homes brand names. The Company offers entry-level, move-up, and multi-move-up homes under the Ashton Woods Homes brand name, and offers entry-level and wholesale homes under the Starlight Homes brand name. Our Ashton Woods communities are focused on delivering design and personalization for our homebuyers through collaboration and expertise. Our Ashton Woods sales and marketing strategy leverages our national brand while allowing our operating divisions to customize execution to meet the needs and preferences of our local markets. While Ashton Woods' value proposition is grounded in design and personalization, Starlight is focused on delivering more affordable homes. Our strategy in approaching the Starlight market is primarily to convert renters into first-time homebuyers and to appeal to move-down buyers by offering more affordable homes that include attractive features, without offering customers the opportunity to personalize their homes.

- (1) A home is included in “homes closed” when title to and possession of the property is transferred to the buyer. Revenues and cost of sales for a home are recognized at the time of the closing of a sale when title to and possession of the property are transferred to the buyer.

- (2) Home sales gross margin percentage is defined as the difference between home sales revenues and cost of sales—homes, expressed as a percentage of home sales revenues. Cost of sales—homes includes the land costs, home construction costs, indirect costs of construction, previously capitalized interest, cost of a reserve for warranty expense, architecture fee amortization, impairment charges, purchase price accounting allocations, closing costs, and pre-acquisition costs related to real estate purchases that are no longer probable.
- (3) Adjusted home sales gross margin percentage, which is defined as adjusted home sales gross margin expressed as a percentage of home sales revenues, is not a financial measure under GAAP and should not be considered an alternative to home sales gross margin percentage determined in accordance with GAAP as an indicator of operating performance. We use this measure to evaluate our performance against other companies in the homebuilding industry and believe it is also relevant and useful to investors. Adjusted home sales gross margin is home sales gross margin that is adjusted to remove inventory impairments, if any, and interest amortized to cost of sales. The following is a reconciliation of home sales gross margin, which is the most directly comparable GAAP measure, to adjusted home sales gross margin:

- (4) Interest incurred for any period is the aggregate amount of interest that is capitalized or charged directly to interest expense during such period. The following table summarizes interest costs incurred, amortized to cost of sales, and expensed during the three and nine months ended February 29, 2024, and February 28, 2023:

- (5) EBITDA (earnings before interest expensed, depreciation and amortization, and interest amortized to cost of sales) is a measure commonly used in the homebuilding industry and is presented as a useful adjunct to net income and other measurements under GAAP because it is a meaningful measure of a company's performance, as interest expense, depreciation and amortization, and interest amortized to cost of sales can vary significantly between companies due, in part, to differences in structure, levels of indebtedness, capital purchasing practices, and interest rates. EBITDA is not a financial measure under GAAP and should not be considered an alternative to net income determined in accordance with GAAP as an indicator of operating performance, nor as an alternative to cash flows from operating activities determined in accordance with GAAP as a measure of liquidity. Because some analysts and companies may not calculate EBITDA in the same manner as us, the EBITDA information in this report may not be comparable to similar presentations by others. EBITDA margin is calculated by dividing EBITDA by total revenues.

The following is a reconciliation of net income, which is the most directly comparable GAAP measure, to EBITDA:

Total capitalization	$ 2,302,369	$ 2,094,827

- (7) The total net debt to net capitalization ratio, which consists of total debt (gross principal amount), net of cash, cash equivalents, and restricted cash ("net debt"), divided by net capitalization (net debt plus total Members' equity), is not a financial measure under GAAP and should not be considered an alternative to total debt to total capitalization ratio, which is the most directly comparable financial measure determined in accordance with GAAP. We use this measure to evaluate our performance against other companies in the homebuilding industry and believe it is also relevant and useful to investors to understand the leverage employed in our operations and as an indicator of our ability to obtain financing.

Operating results - Discussion

Three and Nine Months Ended February 29, 2024 Compared to Three and Nine Months Ended February 28, 2023

Home sales revenues - Consolidated

Home sales revenues increased $128.3 million (16.6%) and $341.0 million (15.8%) for the three and nine months ended February 29, 2024 to $900.4 million and $2.5 billion, respectively, from $772.2 million and $2.2 billion for the three and nine months ended February 28, 2023, respectively. The increase in home sales revenues for the three months ended February 29, 2024 was due to an increase in both the number and the average sales price of homes closed compared to the three months ended February 28, 2023. The increase in home sales revenues for the nine months ended February 29, 2024 compared to the nine months ended February 28, 2023 was due to an increase in the number of homes closed.

The number of homes closed increased 15.8% (302 homes) and 20.0% (1,035 homes) for the three and nine months ended February 29, 2024, to 2,219 and 6,207, respectively, from 1,917 and 5,172 for the three and nine months ended February 28, 2023, respectively. The increase in closings during the three and nine months ended February 29, 2024 was primarily due to the increased availability of homesites and speculative home inventory, and the improvement of cancellation rates on a consolidated basis from 16.0% and 17.5% for the three and nine months ended February 28, 2023, respectively, to 12.7% and 15.4% for the three and nine months ended February 29, 2024, respectively. The increase in closings during the three and nine months ended February 29, 2024 was also driven by an improvement in the demand for new homes as a result of adjustments in pricing and sales and financing incentives that we began offering during the fiscal year ended May 31, 2023 and continued throughout the nine months ended February 29, 2024.

The average sales price of homes closed increased 0.7% and decreased 3.6% to an average of $406,000 and $403,000 for the three and nine months ended February 29, 2024, respectively, from an average of $403,000 and $418,000 for the three and nine months ended February 28, 2023, respectively. The increase in the average sales price of homes closed during the three months ended February 29, 2024, compared to the three months ended February 28, 2023, reflects our ability to raise prices and reduce incentives in select communities across our markets as consumer demand has improved. The decrease in the average sales price of homes closed during the nine months ended February 29, 2024, compared to the nine months ended February 28, 2023, is primarily the result of adjustments in pricing and increased sales and financing incentives, which directly reduce the average sales price of homes closed, that we began offering during the fiscal year ended May 31, 2023 and continued throughout the nine months ended February 29, 2024.

Home sales revenues - East segment

Home sales revenues for the east segment increased by $129.5 million (42.7%) and $369.7 million (45.2%) for the three and nine months ended February 29, 2024, to $432.5 million and $1.2 billion, respectively, from $303.0

million and $818.7 million for the three and nine months ended February 28, 2023, respectively. The increase in home sales revenues for the three and nine months ended February 29, 2024, as compared to the three and nine months ended February 28, 2023, was due to an increase in both the number and the average sales price of homes closed.

The number of homes closed during the three and nine months ended February 29, 2024 increased 38.9% (281 homes) and 41.8% (818 homes), respectively, as compared to the three and nine months ended February 28, 2023. The increase in closings for the east segment during the three and nine months ended February 29, 2024, compared to the three and nine months ended February 28, 2023, was primarily due to the increased availability of homesites and speculative home inventory and the improvement in the demand for new homes as a result of adjustments in pricing and sales and financing incentives that we began offering during the fiscal year ended May 31, 2023 and continued throughout the nine months ended February 29, 2024.

The average sales price of homes closed increased 2.9% and 2.1% to an average of $431,000 and $428,000 for the three and nine months ended February 29, 2024, respectively, from an average of $419,000 for both the three and nine months ended February 28, 2023, respectively. The increase in the average sales price of homes closed in the east segment for the three and nine months ended February 29, 2024, compared to the three and nine months ended February 28, 2023, is primarily due to an increase in the number of closings in our multi-move up communities with higher sales prices.

Home sales revenues - Central segment

Home sales revenues for the central segment decreased by $1.2 million (-0.3%) and $28.6 million (-2.1%) for the three and nine months ended February 29, 2024, to $467.9 million and $1.31 billion, respectively, from $469.2 million and $1.34 billion for the three and nine months ended February 28, 2023, respectively. The decrease in home sales revenues for the three and nine months ended February 29, 2024, as compared to the three and nine months ended February 28, 2023, was due to a decrease in the average sales price of homes closed, partially offset by an increase in the number of homes closed.

The average sales price of homes closed decreased 2.0% and 8.4% for the three and nine months ended February 29, 2024, to an average of $385,000 and $382,000, respectively, from an average of $393,000 and $417,000 for the three and nine months ended February 28, 2023, respectively. The decrease in the average sales price of homes closed for the three and nine months ended February 29, 2024, compared to the three and nine months ended February 28, 2023 is primarily due to adjustments in pricing and increased sales and financing incentives made in response to changing market conditions that we began offering during the fiscal year ended May 31, 2023 and continued throughout the nine months ended February 29, 2024. In addition, newly opened communities in the central segment during the twelve months ended February 29, 2024 generally offered lower initial prices and/or had higher incentive offerings compared to new community openings during the twelve month period ended February 28, 2023.

The number of homes closed during the three and nine months ended February 29, 2024 increased 1.8% (21 homes) and 6.7% (217 homes), respectively, as compared to the three and nine months ended February 28, 2023. Closings for the central segment during the three and nine months ended February 29, 2024, compared to the three and nine months ended February 28, 2023, increased primarily as a result of the increased availability of homesites and speculative home inventory and the improvement in the demand for new homes as a result of adjustments in pricing and sales and financing incentives that we began offering during the fiscal year ended May 31, 2023 and continued throughout the nine months ended February 29, 2024. This increase in demand also contributed to improved cancellation rates in the central segment during the three and nine months ended February 29, 2024, compared to the three and nine months ended February 28, 2023.

Net new home orders, cancellations, and backlog - Consolidated

Net new home orders and backlog do not have a current effect on our revenues; however, both provide important information about our future revenues and business prospects. New home orders are converted to revenues at the time of the home closing. Net new home orders increased 16.0% (324 homes) and increased 14.1% (724 homes) for the three and nine months ended February 29, 2024, respectively, compared to the three and nine months ended February 28, 2023.

Included in the net new home orders are wholesale home sales to real estate investors. Wholesale homes are sold under bulk sales agreements (see Note 1(j) to our unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements included in this quarterly report). In the normal course of business, we may also elect to sell one or more homes to buyers who may be real estate investors pursuant to individual retail purchase and sale agreements which are not included in the wholesale home sales reported herein. Sales to real estate investors are opportunistic in nature and the timing and number of sales can vary from period to period. During the three and nine months ended February 29, 2024, we had 31 and 17 net wholesale home sales, respectively. The 17 net wholesale home orders during the nine months ended February 29, 2024 includes the termination of a single wholesale home sales contract with a real estate investor during the quarter ended August 31, 2023. There were 72 and 1,017 net wholesale home sales to real estate investors during the three and nine months ended February 28, 2023, respectively. Excluding the wholesale home sales contracts with real estate investors, net new home orders increased 18.7% (365 homes) and 41.8% (1,724 homes) for the three and nine months ended February 29, 2024, respectively, compared to the three and nine months ended February 28, 2023. As a result, the average monthly sales per average active community, excluding wholesale home sales contracts with real estate investors, increased from 5.4 and 3.9 for the three and nine months ended February 28, 2023, respectively, to 5.5 and 4.8 for the three and nine months ended February 29, 2024, respectively. The increase in net new home orders was primarily due to the improvement in demand for new homes as a result of adjustments in pricing and sales and financing incentives that we began offering during the fiscal year ended May 31, 2023 and continued throughout the nine months ended February 29, 2024.

Our cancellation rates (as a percentage of gross sales) improved across most of our buyer profiles during the three and nine months ended February 29, 2024, compared to the three and nine months ended February 28, 2023. The lower cancellation rates across most of our buyer profiles were primarily due to improved consumer sentiment regarding market conditions coupled with the adjustments in pricing and sales and financing incentives offered across all of our markets during the nine months ended February 29, 2024. As a result, excluding wholesale home sales contracts with real estate investors, which negatively impacted our consolidated cancellation rate during the three and nine months ended February 29, 2024 as a result of the termination of a single wholesale home sales contract with a real estate investor during the quarter ended August 31, 2023, our consolidated cancellation rate improved from 15.1% and 20.4% for the three and nine months ended February 28, 2023, respectively, to 12.8% and 14.6% for the three and nine months ended February 29, 2024.

Backlog consists of homes that are under purchase contracts that have not yet closed. Backlog decreased 28.2% from 2,551 homes in backlog at February 28, 2023, to 1,831 homes in backlog at February 29, 2024. The decrease in backlog was primarily due to the increase in the number of homes closed during the nine months ended February 29, 2024 compared to the nine months ended February 28, 2023, partially offset by the increase in net new home orders during the nine months ended February 29, 2024 compared to the nine months ended February 28, 2023.

The sales value of backlog at February 29, 2024 was $835.4 million, a 20.9% decrease from the $1.1 billion sales value of backlog at February 28, 2023. Excluding wholesale home sales contracts with real estate investors, the sales value of backlog at February 29, 2024 was $811.0 million, a 1.5% increase from the $799.4 million sales value of backlog excluding wholesale home sales contracts with real estate investors at February 28, 2023. The increase in the sales value of backlog, excluding wholesale home sales contracts with real estate investors, was primarily due to a 24 home increase in the number of homes in backlog, excluding wholesale home sales contracts with real estate investors, at February 29, 2024 compared to February 28, 2023.

Net new home orders and backlog - East segment

Net new home orders in the east segment increased 39.8% (277 homes) and increased 19.9% (412 homes) during the three and nine months ended February 29, 2024, respectively, compared to the three and nine months ended February 28, 2023. Excluding wholesale home sales contracts with real estate investors, net new home orders increased 37.1% (258 homes) and 53.4% (871 homes) for the three and nine months ended February 29, 2024, compared to the three and nine months ended February 28, 2023. Average monthly sales per average active community, excluding wholesale home sales contracts with real estate investors, increased from 4.6 and 3.9 for the three and nine months ended February 28, 2023, respectively, to 5.2 and 4.7 for the three and nine months ended February 29, 2024, respectively. The increase in net new home orders, both including and excluding wholesale home sales contracts with real estate investors, during the three and nine months ended February 29, 2024 compared to the three and nine months ended February 28, 2023, was primarily due to the improvement in consumer demand for new homes as a result of adjustments in pricing and sales and financing incentives that we began offering during the fiscal year ended May 31, 2023 and continued throughout the nine months ended February 29, 2024.

Backlog consisted of 817 homes at February 29, 2024, which is a 30.2% decrease from 1,171 homes in backlog at February 28, 2023. The decrease in backlog was primarily the result of the increase in the number of homes closed during the nine months ended February 29, 2024 compared to the nine months ended February 28, 2023, partially offset by the increase in net new home orders during the nine months ended February 29, 2024 compared to the nine months ended February 28, 2023.

The sales value of backlog at February 29, 2024 was $402.5 million, a 22.5% decrease compared to the $519.4 million sales value of backlog at February 28, 2023. Excluding wholesale home sales contracts with real estate investors, the sales value of backlog at February 29, 2024 was $378.1 million, a (7.7)% decrease from the $409.6 million sales value of backlog excluding wholesale home sales contracts with real estate investors at February 28, 2023. The decrease in the sales value of backlog, excluding wholesale home sales contracts with real estate investors, was primarily due to the 82 home decrease in the number of homes in backlog, excluding wholesale home sales contracts with real estate investors, at February 29, 2024 compared to February 28, 2023, partially offset by an increase in the average sales price of homes in backlog, excluding wholesale home sales contracts with real estate investors, to $511,000 at February 29, 2024, from $498,000 at February 28, 2023. The increase in the average sales price of homes in backlog, excluding wholesale home sales contracts with real estate investors, was primarily due to the mix of communities with homes in backlog. As of February 29, 2024, of the 740 homes in backlog, excluding wholesale home sales contracts with real estate investors, 167 (22.6%) of the homes were considered multi-move-up, compared to 109 (13.3%) of the 822 homes in backlog at February 28, 2023, excluding wholesale home sales contracts with real estate investors. The increase in the percentage of multi-move-up homes in backlog at February 29, 2024 was primarily driven by the mix of active communities in the east segment, as well as the availability of homesites and inventory to sell.

Net new home orders and backlog - Central segment

Net new home orders in the central segment increased 3.5% (47 homes) and increased 10.2% (312 homes) during the three and nine months ended February 29, 2024, respectively, compared to the three and nine months ended February 28, 2023. Excluding wholesale home sales contracts with real estate investors, net new home orders increased 8.5% (107 homes) and 34.2% (853 homes) for the three and nine months ended February 29, 2024, compared to the three and nine months ended February 28, 2023. Average monthly sales per average active community, excluding wholesale home sales contracts with real estate investors, decreased slightly from 6.0 for the three months ended February 28, 2023, to 5.7 for the three months ended February 29, 2024, while average monthly sales per average active community, excluding wholesale home sales contracts with real estate investors, increased from 4.0 for the nine months ended February 28, 2023, to 4.9 for the nine months ended February 29, 2024. The increase in net new home orders, excluding wholesale home sales contracts with real estate investors, during the three and nine months ended February 29, 2024 compared to the three and nine months ended February 28, 2023 was primarily due to an increase in the availability of homesites and inventory to sell, as well as the improvement in demand for new homes as a result of adjustments in pricing and sales and financing incentives that we began offering during the fiscal year ended May 31, 2023 and continued throughout the nine months ended February 29, 2024.

Backlog consisted of 1,014 homes at February 29, 2024, which is a 26.5% decrease from 1,380 homes in backlog at February 28, 2023. The decrease in backlog was primarily the result of the increase in the number of homes closed during the nine months ended February 29, 2024 compared to the nine months ended February 28, 2023, partially offset by the increase in net new home orders during the nine months ended February 29, 2024 compared to the nine months ended February 28, 2023.

The sales value of backlog at February 29, 2024 was $432.9 million, a 19.4% decrease over the $537.2 million sales value of backlog at February 28, 2023. Excluding wholesale home sales contracts with real estate investors, the sales value of backlog at February 29, 2024 was $432.9 million, a 11.1% increase from the $389.7 million sales value of backlog excluding wholesale home sales contracts with real estate investors at February 28, 2023. The increase in the sales value of backlog, excluding wholesale home sales contracts with real estate investors, was primarily due to a 106 home increase in the number of homes in backlog, excluding wholesale home sales contracts with real estate investors, at February 29, 2024 compared to February 28, 2023.

Home sales gross margins - Consolidated

The home sales gross margin percentage from homes closed for the three and nine months ended February 29, 2024 increased to 24.4% and 25.8%, respectively, from 21.5% and 25.1% for the three and nine months ended February 28, 2023, respectively. The increase in home sales gross margin percentage for the three months ended February 29, 2024 compared to the three months ended February 28, 2023, was primarily the result of both a modest increase in the average sales prices of homes closed and a decrease in the cost of materials and labor, as a percentage of home sales revenues, offset, in part, by an increase in sales and financing incentives for the homes closed during the three months ended February 29, 2024, compared to the three months ended February 28, 2023. The increase in home sales gross margin percentage for the nine months ended February 29, 2024, compared to the nine months ended February 28, 2023, was primarily the result of a decrease in pre-acquisition cost write-offs and the cost of materials and labor, as a percentage of home sales revenues, partially offset by a decrease in the average sales price of homes closed during the nine months ended February 29, 2024.

Adjusted home sales gross margin percentage from homes closed for the three and nine months ended February 29, 2024 increased to 25.7% and 27.0%, respectively, from 23.2% and 26.7% for the three and nine months ended February 28, 2023, respectively. These changes in the adjusted home sales gross margin percentage for the three and nine months ended February 29, 2024 compared to the three and nine months ended February 28, 2023 were primarily due to the changes in gross margins during the comparable periods described above.

Home sales gross margins - East segment

The home sales gross margin percentage from homes closed in the east segment for the three and nine months ended February 29, 2024 increased to 25.0% and 26.3%, respectively, from 22.1% and 23.7% for the three and nine months ended February 28, 2023, respectively. The increase in home sales gross margin percentage for the three and nine months ended February 29, 2024, compared to the three and nine months ended February 28, 2023, was a result of both an increase in the average sales prices of homes closed in the east segment and a decrease in the cost of materials and labor as a percentage of home sales revenues, offset, in part, by an increase in sales and financing incentives for the homes closed in the east segment during the three and nine months ended February 29, 2024.

Home sales gross margins - Central segment

The home sales gross margin percentage from homes closed in the central segment for the three and nine months ended February 29, 2024 increased to 23.9% and decreased to 25.3%, respectively, from 21.1% and 25.9% for the three and nine months ended February 28, 2023, respectively. The increase in home sales gross margin percentage for the three months ended February 29, 2024, compared to the three months ended February 28, 2023, was primarily the result of a decrease in the cost of materials and labor as a percentage of home sales revenues, partially offset by a decrease in the average sales price of homes closed during the three months ended February 29, 2024. The decrease in home sales gross margin percentage for the nine months ended February 29, 2024, compared to the nine months ended February 28, 2023, was a result of a decrease in the average sales price of homes closed in the central segment, primarily driven by pricing adjustments and an increase in sales and financing incentives for the homes closed in the central segment during the nine months ended February 29, 2024.

Selling, general and administrative expense

Selling, general and administrative expense ("SG&A") totaled $121.1 million and $343.5 million for the three and nine months ended February 29, 2024, respectively, compared to $98.2 million and $272.0 million for the three and nine months ended February 28, 2023, respectively. The increase in SG&A for the three and nine months ended February 29, 2024, as compared to the three and nine months ended February 28, 2023, was primarily due to increases in sales commissions due to an increase in the number of home closings and an increase in the number of homes closed with outside sales agents, as well as higher salary and benefit related compensation expenses, and increases in advertising and marketing expenses.

SG&A as a percentage of home sales revenues increased to 13.4% and 13.7% for the three and nine months ended February 29, 2024, respectively, from 12.7% and 12.6% for the three and nine months ended February 28, 2023, respectively.

Land sales

We periodically elect to sell parcels of land or lots. We had $21.6 million in sales of lots and land during the three and nine months ended February 29, 2024. We had $4.0 million in sales of land and lots during the nine months ended February 28, 2023. There were no sales of lots and land during the three months ended February 28, 2023.

Net income

Net income increased $28.9 million and $40.5 million to $108.9 million and $332.3 million for the three and nine months ended February 29, 2024, respectively, as compared to the three and nine months ended February 28, 2023. The increase in net income for the three and nine months ended February 29, 2024, as compared to the three and nine months ended February 28, 2023, is primarily attributable to the increase in home sales revenues from the increase in the number of homes closed during the three and nine months ended February 29, 2024, respectively, as compared to the three and nine months ended February 28, 2023, respectively, and higher gross margin percentage during the three and nine months ended February 29, 2024, partially offset by the increase in SG&A as a percentage of home sales revenues, as discussed above.

Liquidity and capital resources

Overview

We currently fund our operations with proceeds from the sales of homes and land, borrowings under our Restated Revolver and long-term senior note financing. As we utilize our capital resources and liquidity to fund the growth of our business, we monitor our balance sheet leverage ratios with the goal of maintaining reasonable levels. We also monitor current and expected operational requirements, as well as financial market conditions, to evaluate accessing other available financing sources. We may make debt purchases and/or exchanges from time to time through tender offers, exchange offers, redemptions, open market purchases, private transactions, or otherwise, or seek to raise additional capital, depending on market conditions and covenant restrictions.

Over the next twelve months, we expect our principal uses of liquidity and capital resources will be to fund our short-term working capital obligations, land and lot purchases, land development, home construction, overhead expenditures, interest payments, and tax and non-tax distributions to our Members. Beyond the next twelve months, we believe our principal demand for funds will be consistent with our short-term uses, as well as repayment or refinancing of our Restated Revolver which matures on January 28, 2026, and repayment or refinancing of our senior notes, with the first maturity of such senior notes not occurring until January 15, 2028.

The Company's total liquidity, including cash, cash equivalents, restricted cash, and available additional borrowing capacity under our Restated Revolver, was $708.1 million as of February 29, 2024. Based on our existing financial condition and credit relationships, we believe that our operations and capital resources are sufficient to provide for our current short-term and foreseeable long-term capital needs. However, we continue to evaluate the impact of market conditions on our liquidity and will consider, as appropriate, additional funding opportunities.

The total debt to total capitalization ratio consists of total debt divided by total capitalization (debt plus Members' equity). Our ratio of total debt to total capitalization improved to 43.6% at February 29, 2024, from 47.7% at February 28, 2023. The net debt to net capitalization ratio, which, as discussed above, is a non-GAAP financial measure, consists of total debt, net of cash and restricted cash ("net debt"), divided by net capitalization (net debt plus Members' equity). Our ratio of net debt to net capitalization improved to 32.5% at February 29, 2024, from 36.4% at February 28, 2023.

Material Cash Requirements

As of February 29, 2024, there have been no material changes to our known contractual and other obligations appearing in the "Liquidity and Capital Resources - Material Cash Requirements" section of Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations included in our 2023 Annual Report.

At February 29, 2024, we controlled 60,194 lots. Of the 60,194 lots controlled, we owned 18.1%, or 10,889 lots, and 81.9%, or 49,305 lots, were under contract. In the ordinary course of business, we enter into purchase and option agreements in order to procure land for the construction of homes in the future. At February 29, 2024, these agreements had an aggregate remaining purchase price of $2.5 billion and cash deposits of $335.0 million. In addition, we had purchase and option agreements recorded under ASC 606 or ASC 470-40 with an aggregate remaining purchase price of $665.6 million and cash deposits of $147.6 million. Pursuant to these land purchase and land option agreements, we generally provide a deposit to the seller as consideration for the right, but not the obligation, to purchase land at different times in the future at predetermined prices. In certain instances, we are required to record the land under option as if we own it.

Senior Unsecured Revolving Credit Facility

On January 28, 2022, the Company entered into the First Amendment to the Restated Revolver, which amended the Restated Revolver, dated as of February 2, 2021. The First Amendment to the Restated Revolver provides for, among other things, (i) an aggregate revolving loan commitment of up to $350.0 million, with up to $50.0 million available for the issuance of letters of credit and up to $20.0 million available for swingline loans, and an accordion feature to permit the size of the facility to be increased up to $400.0 million in the future (dependent upon Company needs and available lender commitments), and (ii) a maturity date of January 28, 2026.

Interest accrues on borrowings under the Restated Revolver at a SOFR or alternative base rate, in each case plus an applicable margin that varies based upon the leverage ratio of the Company from time to time.

Availability under the Restated Revolver is based upon a borrowing base formula, determined by applying certain advance rates to certain asset types provided for in the borrowing base.

The Restated Revolver contains affirmative and negative covenants that are customary for credit agreements of this nature, including (i) a minimum level of Tangible Net Worth (as defined in the Restated Revolver), (ii) a maximum Leverage Ratio (as defined in the Restated Revolver), (iii) a minimum Interest Coverage Ratio (as defined in the Restated Revolver), and (iv) a minimum liquidity requirement. At February 29, 2024, the Company was in compliance with all of the covenants in the Restated Revolver.

The Company did not utilize the Restated Revolver to fund operations during the nine months ended February 29, 2024. As of February 29, 2024, the Company had no borrowings outstanding under the Restated Revolver and $21.0 million of letters of credit outstanding.

The increase in net cash used in operations for the nine months ended February 29, 2024 was primarily due to an increase in the capital invested for inventory.

Investing cash flows

Seasonality and inflation

Our historical quarterly results of operations have tended to be impacted by the seasonal nature of the homebuilding industry. We have historically experienced increases in revenues and cash flow from operations during the fourth quarter of each fiscal year based on the timing of home closings. Any period of high inflation is likely to have an adverse effect on us and the homebuilding industry in general since it may contribute to higher land, financing, labor, and construction costs. We attempt to pass on at least a portion of the cost increases to our homebuyers via increased sales prices; however, we may be limited in our ability to increase our prices, if at all. Further, higher residential mortgage interest rates may accompany inflation and affect the affordability of mortgage financing for homebuyers. If we are unable to increase our sales prices to compensate for any increased costs, or if residential mortgage interest rates continue to stay elevated or increase further and continue to affect the ability or desire of potential homebuyers to obtain financing for their home purchases, our results of operations will likely be adversely affected. See "Risks Relating to our Business and Industry - "Our future operations may be adversely impacted by high inflation" in Part I, Item 1A. "Risk Factors" in our 2023 Annual Report.

Our operations are also affected by seasonality in cash use. Our cash needs are generally higher from January to April each year as we complete the spring building cycle.

Item 3. *Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk

We maintain a mix of variable-rate and fixed-rate debt and our primary market risk exposure for these financial instruments relates to fluctuations in interest rates, which include changes in the U.S. Treasury, SOFR, and other similar reference rates. For our variable-rate debt, our primary exposure is in interest expense.

The borrowings under the Restated Revolver accrue interest at a variable rate. As of February 29, 2024, we had no outstanding borrowings under the Restated Revolver.
